

In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. These have come so that your faith--of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire--may be proved genuine and may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. 1 Peter 1:6-7 (NIV)

Refined By Fire

My eyes and heart and mind are on you. I'm looking forward to the day that I will come to live forever in heaven with you. I am filled with hope and joy because I know that my future in heaven is eternally kept in heaven for me. You have secured my salvation. You have paid for my sins. You have broken down the wall of sin that had separated me from you. You are my Savior and Lord. You are my God and King. I have placed all my faith in you. That is very good.

I know that this life will not be easy. I know I will face difficulties and trials that will test my faith. I will hold on to you. You will sustain me. You will strengthen me. You will lead me through every up and down and twist and turn in life. You are with me to guide me. You are with me help me. You will make me able to stand up under every trial. You will allow me to see that my faith is not resting on myself. You will help me to know that my faith is anchored in you. You are my rock. You are my fortress. You are my deliverer. I have placed all my trust in you. That is very good.

Welcome trials as your friends. That sounds difficult to receive and hard to accept. It is of great value to have your faith refined by fire. In the trials of life your faith in me will shine like a beacon. In the trials of life, you will sparkle like a star in the universe. As your faith is purified by trials, others will see that your faith rests in me. I am your hope. I am your trust. I am your future. You can and will rely on me. You can endure. You can carry on. I will use you. I will work in and through your life. You will be my witness. You will bring glory to my name. Will you hold on to your faith in me as you are refined by the fiery trials of life? Yes, Lord, I will. That will be very good.

Lord, all my faith and trust is in you as I go through trials in life. Use all the trials of life to prove and refine the genuineness of my faith. It is my prayer that my faith in you will bring praise and glory and honor to you in all that I think, say and do. Amen

Trials Proven Genuine

In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. These have come so that your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may be proved genuine and may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.

NIV 1 Peter 1:6-7

Trials Is Genuine

So be truly glad. There is wonderful joy ahead, even though you have to endure many trials for a little while. These trials will show that your faith is genuine. It is being tested as fire tests and purifies gold—though your faith is far more precious than mere gold. So when your faith remains strong through many trials, it will bring you much praise and glory and honor on the day when Jesus Christ is revealed to the whole world.

NLT 1 Peter 1:6-7

Trials Genuineness

In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith—being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.

NRSV 1 Peter 1:6-7

Trials Proving

[You should] be exceedingly glad on this account, though now for a little while you may be distressed by trials and suffer temptations, So that [the genuineness] of your faith may be tested, [your faith] which is infinitely more precious than the perishable gold which is tested and purified by fire. [This proving of your faith is intended] to redound to [your] praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One) is revealed.

AMP 1 Peter 1:6-7

Trials Proof

In this you greatly rejoice, even though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been distressed by various trials, so that the proof of your faith, being more precious than gold which is perishable, even though tested by fire, may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

NASB 1 Peter 1:6-7

Trials Tested Genuineness

In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

ESV 1 Peter 1:6-7

Trials Genuineness

In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been grieved by various trials, that the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tested by fire, may be found to praise, honor, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ,

NKJV 1 Peter 1:6-7

Trials Proved Genuine

I know how great this makes you feel, even though you have to put up with every kind of aggravation in the meantime. Pure gold put in the fire comes out of it proved pure; genuine faith put through this suffering comes out proved genuine. When Jesus wraps this all up, it's your faith, not your gold, that God will have on display as evidence of his victory.

MSG 1 Peter 1:6-7

Trials Being Tested

So be truly glad! There is wonderful joy ahead, even though the going is rough for a while down here. These trials are only to test your faith, to see whether or not it is strong and pure. It is being tested as fire tests gold and purifies it—and your faith is far more precious to God than mere gold; so if your faith remains strong after being tried in the test tube of fiery trials, it will bring you much praise and glory and honor on the day of his return.

TLB 1 Peter 1:6-7

Trials Proved

This makes you very happy, even though now for a short time different kinds of troubles may make you sad. These troubles come to prove that your faith is pure. This purity of faith is worth more than gold, which can be proved to be pure by fire but will ruin. But the purity of your faith will bring you praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is shown to you.
