

Gift

How would you describe the gift that I have given to you? Are you asking me how I would describe the gift of salvation that I have received from you? That's right. I can't possible begin to describe all that you have done, are doing and will do for me through your gift of salvation. Why not? Your gift has a past, present and future. I could describe some of what you have done for me already, even though, I'm sure I inadequately understand even that. What you are doing for me now is unfolding. My mind hasn't caught up with all your present activity in my life. I certainly don't know all that you will do for me in the rest of this life or in my life forever in heaven with you. No, you don't. But, I'm excited. I'm waiting. I'm filled with wonder and anticipation. I'm joyfully looking forward to living each day with and for you. That's good.

Describe what you can about my gift of salvation. I will give it a try. You wiped my slate clean. You gave me a fresh start. You forgave all my sin. You cleansed me of all my unrighteousness. You healed my battered and broken life. You have restored my soul. You have refreshed me in your presence. You have allowed me to taste of your kindness, mercy and love. You are my God and Father. You are my God and King. You are my fortress and deliverer. You adopted me into your family. You have made me to be your child. You filled me with your Holy Spirit. You helped me to walk away from my old life. You have been using your word to change my heart and transform my mind. You are allowing me to think your thoughts, speak your words, and do your deeds. You have given me a completely new life to live. You have given me a future and a hope. You have a purpose and plan for my life. You are leading every day as I love, follow and serve you. I am holding on to you as you hold on to me. You are drawing near to me as I draw near to you. You are allowing me to bear fruit for your kingdom and bring glory to your name. Your hand is on me. You are lavishing me with your life. You hear and answer my prayers. You listen to me as I listen to you. My life is in your hands. I look forward to the day when I will come to live forever. That is very good.

Heavenly Father, your gift of salvation, through your Son's death on the cross for me, is too wonderful for words to describe. I can't stop talking about all that you have done, are doing and will do for me. I can't even conceive of what my future with you holds. Amen
