

O LORD, you have searched me and you know me. You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar. You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways. Before a word is on my tongue you know it completely, O LORD. You hem me in--behind and before; you have laid your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain. Psalm 139:1-6 (NIV)

You Know Me

That is an amazing thought. What's that? You know me. Of course, I know you. I made you. You are the work of my hands. I know you better than you know yourself. Your most insightful self-discovery does not compare with how well I know you. I know when you sit down. I know when you get up. I know your thoughts before they have even been formed in your mind. I know where you have been, where you are now, and where you will be going in the future. Nothing about you is hidden from me. Before you were born, I saw your very first and last day in this life. There is nowhere you can go and nothing you can do that comes as a surprise me. Before a word comes out of your mouth, I know what you are going to say. I have been with you from the beginning and I will be with you at the end. One day, you will come to live with me forever in heaven. I look forward to that day. In the meantime, my hand is on you. My favor is with you. I will guard your life. I will guide you to where I want you to go. I will give you what I want you to do. I welcome your leadership over my life. That is very good.

I do have something I would like to say. What's that? You already know what I am going to say. Yes, I do. Even still, it is my joy to hear from you. It is beyond amazing that you know me. It is overwhelming that you can see all my flaws and yet you still love and care for me. My dumbest and darkest thoughts have not scared you away. My thoughtless words and stupid actions have not caused you to give up on me. You see all my missteps, mistakes and sins and you forgive and cleanse me of all of them. Yes, I do. You are so good to me. I am so thankful that you are my Savior and Lord. I am glad that my life is in your hands. I will love and follow and serve you with all my heart and mind and soul and strength. That is very good.

Heavenly Father, I am so glad you know me intimately. It amazes me that even with such knowledge you still love and care for me. Thank you for being with me wherever I go. Help me to live in close fellowship with you. I want to love and you with all my heart. Amen

God The Father*You Know Me*

O LORD, you have searched me and you know me. You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar. You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways. NIV

Psalm 139:1-6

God The Father*You Know Me*

O LORD, you have searched me and known me! You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar. You search out my path and my lying down and are acquainted with all my ways. Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, O LORD, you know it altogether. You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high; I cannot attain it.

ESV

Psalm 139:1-6

God The Father*You Know Me*

O LORD, you have examined my heart and know everything about me. You know when I sit down or stand up. You know my thoughts even when I'm far away. You see me when I travel and when I rest at home. You know everything I do. You know what I am going to say even before I say it, LORD. You go before me and follow me. You place your hand of blessing on my head. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too great for me to understand!

NLT

Psalm 139:1-6

God The Father*You Know Me*

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. O LORD, You have searched me and known me. You know my sitting down and my rising up; You understand my thought afar off. You comprehend my path and my lying down, And are acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word on my tongue, But behold, O LORD, You know it altogether. You have hedged me behind and before, And laid Your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; It is high, I cannot attain it.

NKJV

Psalm 139:1-6

God The Father*You Know Me*

O LORD, you have searched me and known me. You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from far away. You search out my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways. Even before a word is on my tongue, O LORD, you know it completely. You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is so high that I cannot attain it.

NRSV

Psalm 139:1-6

God The Father*You Know Me*

A David psalm GOD, investigate my life; get all the facts firsthand. I'm an open book to you; even from a distance, you know what I'm thinking. You know when I leave and when I get back; I'm never out of your sight. You know everything I'm going to say before I start the first sentence. I look behind me and you're there, then up ahead and you're there, too— your reassuring presence, coming and going. This is too much, too wonderful—I can't take it all in!

MSG

Psalm 139:1-6

God The Father*You Know Me*

O LORD, you have searched me [thoroughly] and have known me. You know my downsit[ing] and my upris[ing]; You understand my thought afar off. You sift and search out my path and my lying down, and You are acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue [still unuttered], but, behold, O Lord, You know it altogether. You have beset me and shut me in— behind and before, and You have laid Your hand upon me. Your [infinite] knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high above me, I cannot reach it.

AMP

Psalm 139:1-6

God The Father*You Know Me*

O Lord, you have examined my heart and know everything about me. You know when I sit or stand. When far away you know my every thought. You chart the path ahead of me and tell me where to stop and rest. Every moment you know where I am. You know what I am going to say before I even say it. You both precede and follow me and place your hand of blessing on my head. This is too glorious, too wonderful to believe!

Psalm 139:1-6

God The Father*You Know Me*

O LORD, You have searched me and known me. You know when I sit down and when I rise up; You understand my thought from afar. You scrutinize my path and my lying down, And are intimately acquainted with all my ways. Even before there is a word on my tongue, Behold, O LORD, You know it all. You have enclosed me behind and before, And laid Your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; It is too high, I cannot attain to it.

NASB

Psalm 139:1-6

God The Father*You Know Me*

For the director of music. A psalm of David. LORD, you have examined me and know all about me. You know when I sit down and when I get up. You know my thoughts before I think them. You know where I go and where I lie down. You know thoroughly everything I do. LORD, even before I say a word, you already know it. You are all around me—in front and in back— and have put your hand on me. Your knowledge is amazing to me; it is more than I can understand.
