Go And Do

I will go and do what you ask of me. What am I likely to ask you to go and do? You are likely to ask me to go and help people in need. How do you know that I will ask you to go and help people in need? You want me to become like you. You want me to go and do what you did. You loved God. You loved others. God sent you on a mission to demonstrate His love to others. You will send me on a mission to demonstrate your love to others. I have no doubt about that, not one bit. That's good. Will you have to travel a great distance to go and help people in need? Will it take the best of detective skills to discover someone in need? No, there are people in need all around me. I will just need to open my eyes to see those who are in need. I will just need to open my ears to you to hear you guiding me to help someone in need. Has this been a problem for you in the past? Yes, I have had a problem of both noticing and then going to help someone in need. Why is that? I have been preoccupied. I have been distracted. I have been too busy. I have not wanted to be interrupted. I have not wanted to be inconvenienced. How does all this sound to you? It sounds pathetic. It sounds embarrassing. It sounds self-centered. I don't like what I am hearing from myself. I can imagine you don't like the sound of what I'm saying either. That was then. What about now? Now, I want to help others in need. Now, I will go and help those who are in need all around me. Now, I want to be used by you. Now, I will go where you guide me. Now, I will do what you ask of me. I will love others just like you have loved me. I will allow you to use me to demonstrate your love in the world. That will be very good.

Lord, I know I have walked right on by people in need. I either didn't see their need or I didn't want to see their need. Open my eyes to see those who need my help. Give me a heart of compassion to go and help those who are in need. Use me in your service. Amen

Jesus replied with a story: "A Jewish man was traveling on a trip from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he was attacked by bandits. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him up, and left him half dead beside the road. "By chance a priest came along. But when he saw the man lying there, he crossed to the other side of the road and passed him by. A Temple assistant walked over and looked at him lying there, but he also passed by on the other side. "Then a despised Samaritan came along, and when he saw the man, he felt compassion for him. Going over to him, the Samaritan soothed his wounds with olive oil and wine and bandaged them. Then he put the man on his own donkey and took him to an inn, where he took care of him. The next day he handed the innkeeper two silver coins, telling him, 'Take care of this man. If his bill runs higher than this, I'll pay you the next time I'm here.' "Now which of these three would you say was a neighbor to the man who was attacked by bandits?" Jesus asked. The man replied, "The one who showed him mercy." Then Jesus said, "Yes, now go and do the same."

Jesus, taking him up, replied, A certain man was going from Jerusalem down to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him of his clothes and belongings and beat him and went their way, [unconcernedly] leaving him half dead, as it happened. Now by coincidence a certain priest was going down along that road, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. A Levite likewise came down to the place and saw him, and passed by on the other side [of the road]. But a certain Samaritan, as he traveled along, came down to where he was; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity and sympathy [for him]. And went to him and dressed his wounds, pouring on [them] oil and wine. Then he set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii [two day's wages] and gave [them] to the innkeeper, saying, Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I [myself] will repay you when I return. Which of these three do you think proved himself a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers? He answered, The one who showed pity and mercy to him. And Jesus said to him, Go and do likewise.

Jesus answered by telling a story. "There was once a man traveling from Jerusalem to Jericho. On the way he was attacked by robbers. They took his clothes, beat him up, and went off leaving him half-dead. Luckily, a priest was on his way down the same road, but when he saw him he angled across to the other side. Then a Levite religious man showed up; he also avoided the injured man. "A Samaritan traveling the road came on him. When he saw the man's condition, his heart went out to him. He gave him first aid, disinfecting and bandaging his wounds. Then he lifted him onto his donkey, led him to an inn, and made him comfortable. In the morning he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, 'Take good care of him. If it costs any more, put it on my bill—I'll pay you on my way back.' "What do you think? Which of the three became a neighbor to the man attacked by robbers?" "The one who treated him kindly," the religion scholar responded. Jesus said, "Go and do the same."

Do What He Did

Jesus answered, "As a man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, some robbers attacked him. They tore off his clothes, beat him, and left him lying there, almost dead. It happened that a Jewish priest was going down that road. When he saw the man, he walked by on the other side. Next, a Levite came there, and after he went over and looked at the man, he walked by on the other side of the road. Then a Samaritan traveling down the road came to where the hurt man was. When he saw the man, he felt very sorry for him. The Samaritan went to him, poured olive oil and wine on his wounds, and bandaged them. Then he put the hurt man on his own donkey and took him to an inn where he cared for him. The next day, the Samaritan brought out two coins, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of this man. If you spend more money on him, I will pay it back to you when I come again.'" Then Jesus said, "Which one of these three men do you think was a neighbor to the man who was attacked by the robbers?" The expert on the law answered, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Then go and do what he did."

Becoming Like Christ – Luke 10:30-37

In Context: Read Luke 10

Begin With Prayer:

Here I am Lord. I Am Listening.

Meditating On God's Word: (What is God speaking to your heart?)

In reply Jesus said: "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead. A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, took him to an inn and took care of him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper. 'Look after him,' he said, 'and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.' "Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?" The expert in the law replied, "The one who had mercy on him." Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise." Luke 10:30-37 (NIV)

Considering The Words: (What words speak to your heart?)

In reply Jesus said: | "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, | when he fell into the hands of robbers. | They stripped him of his clothes, | beat him and went away, | leaving him half dead. | A priest happened to be going down the same road, | and when he saw the man, | he passed by | on the other side. | So too, | a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, | passed by | on the other side. | But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; | and when he saw him, | he took pity on him. | He went to him | and | bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. | Then he put the man on his own donkey, | took him to an inn and took care of him. | The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper. | 'Look after him,' | he said, | 'and when I return, | I will reimburse you | for any extra expense you may have.' | "Which of these three | do you think | was a neighbor | to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?" | The expert in the law replied, | "The one who | had mercy on him." | Jesus told him, | "Go and | do likewise." Luke 10:30-37 (NIV)

Praying The Scripture: (What prayer from your heart will you write?)

Lord, I know I have walked right on by people in need. I either didn't see their need or I didn't want to see their need. Open my eyes to see those who need my help. Give me a heart of compassion to go and help those who are in need. Use me in your service. Amen

What It Means: (What questions speak to your heart?) (Suggested questions for small group discussion are in bold)

When have you been so distracted that you failed to notice someone who needed your help?

How has a self-centered focus hindered your ability to see someone who is in need?

When has helping someone in need been too inconvenient for you to involve yourself?

Where would you now be if it was too inconvenient for the Lord to help you in your need?

How passionately do you want to follow the Lord's example of going and helping others in need?

How has the Lord been able to use you to go and help others in need?

What joy have you found in being used by the Lord to go and help others in need?

Living It Out: (What action step is God guiding your heart to take?)

Allow the Lord to use you to go and help those who are in need.

Seeing It Happen: (What are you trusting God for in your heart?)

Have faith that the Lord will use you to go and help those who are in need.

Get Ready To Share: (What can you share with others from your heart?)

Share with another person or your small group how you are go and helping those who are in need.
